UNITED WAY
bornlearning[®]academy

The United Way Born Learning Academy is an innovative program that meets a critical need in Kentucky communities - early childhood parental education. This school-based Academy consists of six free workshop sessions that provide parents with the tools to help their children succeed in kindergarten and beyond. Parents of young children (0-5 age group) are engaged in hands-on activities they can use at home to maximize their child's early learning and development and focus on:

- Building Relationships
- Building Your Child's Language Skills
- Nutrition and Health
- How Children Learn
- Routines and Learning on the Go

BOYD COUNTY

- 2600 children under age 5.
- 33% live below the poverty level.

Born Learning Trails are designed to engage children with a series of 10 interactive signs creating a fun learning experience. The first trail in Northeast Kentucky is a new walking path that runs along the block in front of the Carol Jackson Unity Center in Ashland, KY.

— “ ————
Boyd County has the highest rate of out-of-home-placement of children in the entire state of Kentucky.
